

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN
MEDINA COUNTY BRANCH

AGENT OF CHANGE AWARD

Medina County (OH) Branch

The Medina County Branch of the American Association of University Women, (AAUW), is seeking nominees for its biennial Agent of Change Award to be given to a person who has made positive changes in the county on behalf of women and/or children.

Individuals or organizations may nominate a man or woman who is or has been a Medina County resident and who meets the following criteria:

- Has consistently and effectively used resources, talents and influence to help women and/or children achieve their potential or
- Has been a community volunteer or a professional whose achievements went beyond the requirement of the position, or
- Accomplished positive change for women and/or children who are residents of Medina County

Candidates could include a long-time volunteer who has initiated programming to impact women and/or children; a member of a service organization or business who has influenced positive changes; or an individual who has served on a local, state-wide or national level to accomplish positive change in the lives of women and/or children.

To nominate a candidate for the 2018 Agent of Change Award, please send the name, address and phone number of the person being nominated along with a 200 word or less description of how the person fulfills the above criteria, and names and contact information for two persons of reference who have relevant knowledge of the nominee.

Deadline for nominations is October 1, 2018 and should be mailed to:

2018 Agent of Change Award
% Mary Gresco
4330 Pine Lake Dr.
Medina, OH 44256

The awardee will be honored at a luncheon on Thursday, Nov. 8th at Rustic Hills Country Club. The speaker for the event will be Ms. Angela Huston. Ms Huston's byline has appeared in seven newspapers and several magazines and her book, "Looking Through Rose-Tinted Bifocals," is in its second printing.
